Prof. and Mrs. Frank L. Farrell left Norwich Monday to attend the funeral of their former brother, in Ansonia. The New Haven Journal-Courier of Monday said:

John T. Farrell, son of Lawrence Farrell, Clifton avenue, Ansonia, died Sunday at the home of his brother, Bernard Farrell, of Howard avenue, Ansonia. Mr. Farrell had been ill for the past few months, coming to Ansonia from New Jersey, where he had been living for the purpose of recuperating.

His health had been failing since he came to New Jersey, where he was living in New Jersey. Mr. Farrell's wife died and due to her long illness his health had been failing since he came to New Jersey, where he was living in New Jersey.

It was the opinion of physicians that a few months' stay in this section would restore him to his usual good health. For a time it looked as though he was improving but complications developed and for several days his condition became such that it was known that the end was near.

Mr. Farrell was 38 years of age, and a native of Ansonia.

He is survived by three children four brothers, Frank L. Farrell of this city, Joseph Farrell of Cleveland, Ohio, William T. Farrell and Bernard Farrell of Ansonia, and by two sisters, Mrs. Patrick J. O'Connell and Miss Lorena Farrell, also of Ansonia.

OBITUARY.

Sarah Minerva Potter.

The body of Mrs. Sarah M. Potter, wife of Edmund A. Potter of Stonington, was laid to rest in the Holyoke cemetery, Stonington, Monday afternoon, April 11, 1916. Impressive funeral services were held at the Baptist church, of which she had been a member for twenty-nine years.

She was born in Newburyport, N. H., in 1822, the daughter of Abram and Rebecca Sheldon Wilcox. During her mother's life she resided in the city of Stonington, where she was a devoted friend of her husband's church.

Thoughtfulness for others was her characteristic and to those in sorrow in this kind of a bereavement she was a great comfort, but withal patient and uncomplaining. She loved life, and this was the secret of her love for her home and her church.

Her death is mourned by a wide circle of friends, but they and the community are the richer for the legacy of "faith, hope and love" which she has left them.

She is numbered with them that rest from their labors," yet her "labors do follow" her and she, though "being dead," yet speaketh.

FIVE CHURCHES IN SERVICE

Rev. Joseph F. Cobb Speaks On External Preparation For Easter at the Universalist Church—Says Object of Prayer Is to Alay the Passions.

The congregations of five Norwich churches gathered at the Church of the Good Shepherd, Universalist, on Monday evening for the first of the Holy week union services which will continue throughout the week.

The churches uniting in these services are the Church of the Good Shepherd, Universalist, Second Congregational church, Trinity Methodist Episcopal church, Broadway Congregational church and the Central Baptist church. The pastors of the churches were present and assisted in the service, which was led by Rev. Joseph F. Cobb, of the Good Shepherd.

Mr. Cobb, who is chairman of the Holy week union services, said that the object of the service is to alay the passions. He said that the world is governed by passion, and it is the duty of the Christian to alay the passions.

NAVAL TRAINING CRUISE FOR CIVILIAN SAILORS.

Nearly a Month Will Be Given on Board Reserve Battleships.

The navy department has authorized a naval training cruise for civilian sailors, which will begin on Aug. 15 and last until Sept. 15, and notice to this effect has been received at recruiting stations, signed by Secretary Josephus Daniels. The course of training is to be given on board reserve battleships.

Civilians will be recruited by naval districts and the ships will be allotted according to the number of recruits accepted in each district.

Qualifications. Recruits must be citizens of the United States, between the ages of 19 and 25, in good standing and must be able to pass a prescribed physical examination. Unless they are 21 years of age, recruits will not be accepted without the consent of a parent or guardian. An applicant for enrollment must be able to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the recruiting officer that he possesses some nautical knowledge or experience, or that he has had some training in the navy. Six months of experience, or its equivalent, in any one of the following trades would be considered a qualification for enrollment: Machinist, boilermaker, plumber, shipfitter, cooper, carpenter, electrician, crane freeman, telegrapher, radio operator.

After he has qualified an applicant will be received in the form of application for enrollment addressed to the secretary of the navy, which will be supplied by recruiting officers. Applications must be made to recruiting officers not later than June 1.</
